

142. The Globalist ideal.

When the judges have gone mad
And victims are punished evil cabal has arrived
a few brave, it's all too sad

government and media Forged an alliance
To wash your brains
To wash your brains

The Globalist ideal
Is no longer normal Aren't they the terrorists?
member of an evil cabal
Open borders Doctors, engineers
No refugees at all, but profiteers
at the expense of everything
and everyone

Full of hatred she receives a punch afterwards the pack goes berserk She can no longer escape time and time again she is raped

They murdered a girl young people, so it is claimed the color of her hair is blond No one's punished without shame

The Globalist ideal
Is no longer normal
Aren't they the terrorists?
Open borders Doctors, engineers
No refugees at all, but profiteers
at the expense of everything
and everyone

everything
and everyone
And the real refugee
and everyone
And the real refugee

[sax] [bridge]

and everyone
And the real refugee
and everyone
And the real refugee

The Globalist ideal
Is no longer normal
and everyone

Criminals cut in line
Everyone is deceived

Even the war refugee That shouldn't be allowed

Too bizarre to name
The gruesome stories
Thanks to the globalists More and more to come.

Close that door and open the one of love
open the one of love
