

Hi my old friend
how nice you come to me on my ceiling with your boat never known it good be Hi my old friend
how nice I saw you
on my ceiling after you died never knew it was alright

I am happy I could see,
you are doing very well
But was this such a thing what you never can tell
was this for real,
or is it I who's crazy
is there a hole in my mind or are the spirit guardians lazy?

of course I also often think of you how it was, and never will be singing drunk on the boat together with the gang, you and me yeah

I am happy I could see,
was this for real,

how nice I saw you
on my ceiling after I died never knew it was quite alright My old friend, did you like it I came as vowed or were you startled and do you have the shivers from it now
