

94.109. Never again.

I saw how a clown, just let himself be shot, Last night he came out of nowhere, with arms open wide,
Now he has lost his life

Awake on the beach in another country I don't know where, don't know a soul But everyone here loves each other with a kiss And that my darling is my greatest wish without knowing it, I've created a work of art in the hotel room stuffed newspapers, stuck to the walls with white paint, stripes and dots apart All in all, not so bad at all hunger, war or violence, never again no supreme being no judgment day if there must be one? Hurray!

Let it be the one of love, the one of love if there must be one above, Let it be the one of love, the artwork is not bad at all, certainly beautiful until I leave but the owner of the hotel Jumps out of his skin, I pick him up, have put him outside the Inn in the alley by the hotel, dressed as a clown

put him in a cannon Shoot it against a wall

It becomes whole again completely Beautiful pure nature clots splatters and blobs stuck together Made with white paint, stripes and dots

hunger, war or violence, never again
no supreme being no judgment day
if there must be one? Hurray!
Let it be the one of love, the one of love
if there must be one above,
Let it be the one of love,

the artwork is famous now is in all the newspapers, the hotel very well known even in New York a trend

The room can be booked for five times the amount you can't stop commerce It doesn't matter, that's allowed

But that clown, that pathetic clown, nobody knows him and nobody misses him.
he came out of nowhere, with arms wide, right against the wall, he lost his life

hunger, war or violence, never again
no supreme being no judgment day
if there must be one? Hurray!
Let it be the one of love, the one of love
if there must be one above,
Let it be the one of love,

[guitar bridge]

hunger, war or violence, never again
no supreme being no judgment day
if there must be one? Hurray!
Let it be the one of love, the one of love
if there must be one above,
Let it be the one of love

hunger, war or violence, never again
no supreme being no judgment day
if there must be one? Hurray!
Let it be the one of love, the one of love
if there must be one above,
Let it be the one of love

we love each other,
we love each other
everyone loves, everyone,
we love each other
we love each other,
we love each other
everyone loves, everyone,

I'm so glad this country exists, it's so Fine, a country without hate, only One faith, The one of love,
With only one message
