

Wright at the backdoor.

I spoke a lady she said to me if you want my man than don't look at me

Wright at the backdoor
that's where you find my man Wright at the backdoor
you can find him if you can Wright at the backdoor
that's where he belongs

No! we ain't together, no not anymore
So if you want him, try the backdoor
No we ain't together I can tell you for sure I don't want him I don't want him anymore

Wright at the backdoor that 's where he belongs it's so much different now, than when we began we used to kiss,
at that same backdoor
and we used to love but not anymore these day's are gone since he...

ain't sober anymore

Wright at the backdoor, is where he belongs That's his place, since we can't get along by the other broken stuff you can find him, if you can

Wright at the backdoor you can find him... if you can
