

106. Between two worlds

I live, in the twilight-zone between, here and there the things I don't understand are the one's that, I don't care it's so much different now than when you where in my life you took the front door became my lady, my wife You've made me happy.

for quite a while I remember
you always with a smile

so please, baby please
love me every night,
hold me tight
and kiss me, in my dreams

when I look back
it's all to bizarre
paradise people,
free like a bird
but our wings disappeared, we flew to high
there's sadness in my heart,
attracted to die

So love me every night
hold me tight
and kiss me in my dreams
be there if you can
don't go before
I understand...

Why?

Why?

Why?

Why?

Mmmmm

I live, in the twilight-zone,
the things I don't, understand are the one's I don't care

when I look back
it's all to bizarre
paradise people,
free like a bird
but our wings disappeared,
we flew to high
there's sadness in my heart,
attracted to die

So love me every night,
hold me tight
and kiss me in my dreams,
be there if you can
and please don't go before I understand

Why?

Why?
