

3.3.Red hat.

I got a present from my girl,
she had to go, far from me
It's a red, red hat she said, keep it well, I come back you'll see

It's a shame, if I forget, to were that red beautiful hat That's why I now were it in my car, the bar,
I even where it in my bed

I got a present from my girl,
she had to go, far from me
It's a red, red head, she said
keep it well, I come back, you'll see

I never, forget, to were that red hat
But still, I lost him somehow.
I'm starting to panic because I can't do without that hat anymore.

I got a present from my girl,
she had to go, far from me
It's a red, red head, she said
keep it well, I come back, you'll see

It is a present from my girlfriend
I have to find that hat
it's a bound of her to me love, for all eternity

It is a present from my girlfriend
I have to find that hat
It is a bond between her and me.
for love from the hart

I got a present from my girl,
she had to go, far from me

And she will come back I know that for sure
Than we make love together Never let her go no more never never never more

She will come back

She will come back

She will come back

She will come back,

you'll seeee
