

48. Where is my loved one.

You sold my land
You sold your soul
You broke your promises
start the war
Talk a different language from now on
It's raining on and on

Where is my loved one
What have you done?
Where is my loved one
Why is she gone

I'm sitting under a tree
You're vanished
There is no more you and me
It's raining on and on

Where is my loved one
Why is she gone
Where is my loved one
What the hell have you done?

Where is my loved one
Where is my loved one
Where is my loved one
Why is she gone?

You sold my land
You sold your soul
You broke your promises
start the war
Talk a different language, from now on It's raining on and on

you speak like a BlackRock Rooster
sheepish people take there booster
What the hell have you done?

They go to war with a smile
To be shot dead after a while
What the hell have you done?

Where is my loved one
Where is my loved one
Where is my loved one
Why is she gone?

Where is my loved one
Where is my loved one

Where is my loved one
What the hell have you done?
What the hell have you done?

What the hell have you done?
What the hell have you done?
