

134. White black or red?

[female]

[intro]

I say nothing, stil I hear my voice, echoes through my head
it's all so sad

[female]

[verse 1]

meaningless words
your gaze is far away
you take my hand,
I understand, and pray

your head, against mine,
and your body to
You're crying and ,
I cry a little to

[chorus]

Beautiful... silence,
people are all gone
uncontrollable, emotions,
 clichés like... life goes on!
they come too soon
business before death
which color... should I wear, is it white, black or... red?!!!!

[female]

[Verse 2]

I hear my voice,
echoes through my head
words disappear,
it's all so sad
meaningless words
your gaze is far away
you take my hand,
I understand, and pray

[chorus]

Beautiful... silence,
people are all gone
uncontrollable, emotions,
 clichés like... life goes on!
they come too soon
business before death
which color... should I wear,
is it white, black or... red?!!!!

[sax]

[chorus]

Beautiful... silence,
people are all gone
uncontrollable, emotions,
 clichés like... life goes on!
they come too soon
business before death
which color... should I wear,
is it white, black or... red?!!!!

[female]

[verse 3]

I see cars, friends arrive
it's good they are here Now there is no more you, still I feel you very near

your head, against mine,
and your body to
with you we all
die a little (to)

[chorus]

Beautiful... silence,
people are all gone
uncontrollable, emotions,
 clichés like... life goes on!
they come too soon
business before death
which color... should I wear,
is it white, black or... red?!!!!

[female]

[outro]

which color... should I wear,
is it white, black or, red?!!!!
